

Curriculum Vitae

Stephanie Abramoske-James

Education:

University of Texas at Dallas - PhD – Criminology, May 2012

University of Texas at Dallas - MS - Criminology, Dec 2009

George Washington University - MFS - Forensic Science, Aug 1998

University of Maryland University College - BS - Behavioral Sciences, Dec 1996

Teaching History:

Spring 2010 - Summer 2010

Institution: Eastfield College

Position: Adjunct Instructor - Forensic Sciences

Fall 2008 - Summer 2010

Institution: Everest College

Position: Adjunct Instructor - Forensic Sciences

Spring 2000 - Spring 2001

Institution: UMUC

Position: Adjunct Instructor - Criminal Justice

Spring 1999 - Spring 2001

Institution: Central Texas College

Position: Adjunct Instructor - Criminal Justice

Additional Teaching History:

2008 - present Primary Instructor & Curricular Development, Crime Scene Investigator (CSI), Summer Camp, UTD, Richardson, Texas

2005 - 2007 Technical Expert Advisor & Board Member, U.S. Army Fatality Review Board, Walter Reed Army Medical Center, Washington, D.C.

2004 - 2007 Instructor and Lead Expert, Forensic Sciences Officer Technical Working Group, United States Army CID Command.

Publications:

Paul E. Tracy and Stephanie Abramoske-James (2010).

"Juvenile Reentry and Community-based Aftercare: A Review and Assessment." in Albert R. Roberts and David W. Springer (Eds.) Juvenile Delinquency and Juvenile Justice: Policies, Programs, and Intervention Strategies. Jones and Bartlett Publishers.

Paul E. Tracy, Kimberly Kempf-Leonard, and Stephanie Abramoske-James (2009).

"Gender Differences in Delinquency and Juvenile Justice Processing: Evidence from National Data." Crime and Delinquency, 55: #2.

2006 Chapter, CID-Regulation 195-1, Sexual Assault Investigations

Professional Organizations:

American Academy of Forensic Sciences
American Criminological Society
American Society of Criminal Justice

Work History:

Research Assistant – Institute for Urban Policy Research, University of Texas at Dallas
Managing Editor – Police Quarterly
Fraud Investigator – Intuit
US Army Criminal Investigator
US Army Military Police